TALK TO CMA

As a wise investor, you should know your rights and responsibilities. Be aware of the rules that protect you and your investments, and the legal recourse if things go wrong.

Step 1

- Conduct 'Financial self examination'
 - Analyse your financial objectives, your income sources, constraints and risk tolerance

Step 2

- Deal only with licensed Entities
 - Identify your financial investment advisor and open an account with them. Your investment advisor, be they an investment bank, a stock broker or any other firm advising you on investment must be a licensee of the Capital Markets Authority (CMA).

Step 3

- Open a Central Depository System (CDS) account
 - A Central Depository System (CDS) is a computer system operated by Central Depository and Settlement Corporation (CDSC), which facilitates holding of securities in electronic accounts opened by shareholders.

Step 4

- How to open a CDS Account
 - You open a CDS account by completing and signing a securities account opening/maintenance form with your Central Depository Agent (CDA), providing two recent passport size photographs and a photocopy of your national identity card. A CDA is a central depository agent, either a Stockbroker an Investment Bank or a Custodian Bank, who has been authorized by Central Depository and Settlement Corporation (CDSC) to open CDS accounts on behalf of investors.

Step 5

- Take Control of your Trading Account
 - Ensure that your stockbroker/investment bank does not trade in your account without your knowledge. It is important to make sure that you are receiving all documents relevant to your transactions including; receipts, transaction statement, purchase and sales contracts, CDS account statements, etc. It is this account you will be referring to find out what transaction have been made by the stockbroker on your behalf.
 - You can also receive sms account alerts from the CDSC by sending "Register" to 22372
